

BioBlitz

Tice's Meadow Nature Reserve, Badshot Lea

Saturday June 13th

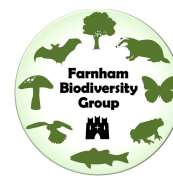

The Tice's Meadow Bird Group are holding their annual BioBlitz on Saturday June 13th. It's a fun, free, family friendly event, so please come along and explore the nature reserve, enjoy the wildlife, meet the experts and take part in the activities.

8:00 am to 4:00 pm	Bird ringing demonstration.
8:30 am	Moth trap emptying and identification.
9:30 am	Small mammals walk with the Surrey Mammal Group.
11:00 am	Reptiles walk with the Surrey Amphibian & Reptile Group.
4:00 pm	Pond dipping.
5:30 pm	Bird-watching walk.
9:30 pm	Bat walk with the Surrey Bat Group.
9:30 pm till late.	Moth trapping – at the Hanson Hide.

Volunteers will be on site all day to help you identify the wildlife seen, discuss the development of the nature reserve and answer any questions you may have.

All events are weather dependant and subject to change. See our website and social media for further details, how to find us and the latest updates.

Supported by, and featuring contributions from:

www.ticesmeadow.org
 www.facebook.com/groups/ticesmeadow
 @ticesmeadow